Content

1. Guide

1.1. Instalation

Upload the "Favorite plugins" plugin to your blog and activate it.

1.2. Main page

For add/remove plugins to favorite click the favorite button on the plugins page in the admin panel.

For filter plugins for showing only favorite plugins in admin panel click the link "Favorites".

Picture 1 Admin plugins page

1.3. Customzation

For customization choose the "Favorite plugins settings" clause. For not network administrators the clause is in the menu "Options". For network administrators the clause is in the menu "Settings".

Switch options and click "Save Chages" button. For using image sprites, choose the same image for two icons.
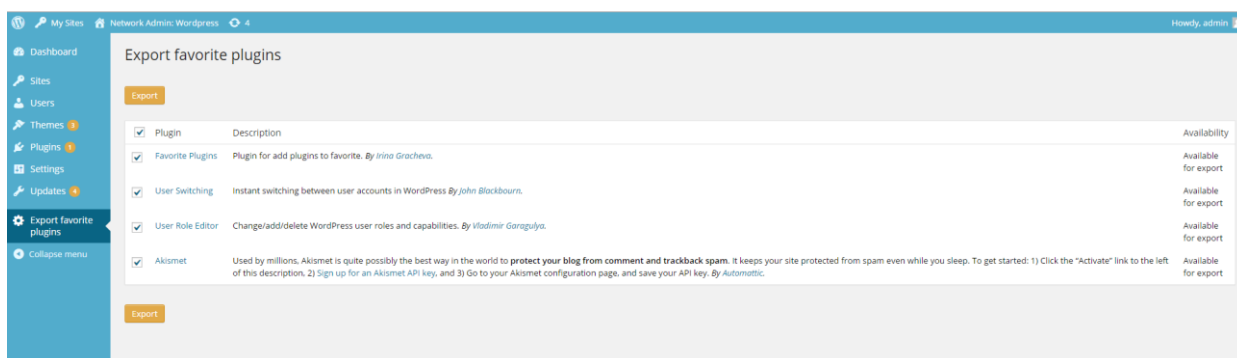

Picture 2 Settings page

1.4. Export

For export favorite plugins choose the "Export favorite plugins" clause. For not network administrators the clause is in the admin menu "Tools". For not network administrators the clause is in the main wordpress admin menu.

Select plugins which you want to export and click button "Export".

Picture 3 Export favorite plugins page

2. Frequently Asked Questions

2.1. How can I use the same data about my favorite plugins for few websites?

You can use the same data about favorite plugins for few websites by using ftp.

For this you need setup ftp settings in the option page. Open the plugin's options page and switch the necessary ftp parameters. Fpt server must support passive mode. Save options.

2.2. Where is my list of favorite plugins located?

The default list is stored in the file favorite.txt in the plugin directory. If you enable ftp, the list is stored on ftp server according your settins.